wage for the days he has worked in that accounting year," shall be omitted.

6. Omission of section 15.—Section 15 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

7. Substitution of new section for section 20.—For section 20 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"20. Application of Act to establishments in public sector.—Save as otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this Act shall apply to all establishments in public sector."

8. Amendment of section 32.—In section 32 of the principal Act, clause (x) shall be omitted.

9. Omission of the Fourth Schedule.—In the principal Act, the Fourth Schedule shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Payment of Bonus Act, 1965, fixes the minimum bonus at four per cent of the salary or wage earned by an employee during the accounting year or forty rupees, whichever is higher and the maximum limit at twenty per cent. of such salary or wage. The quantum of bonus, both minimum and maximum, fixed by this Act is extremely inadequate. Before the Act came into force, many industries used to pay bonus at rates higher than those prescribed by it. The provisions of the Act have, therefore, adversely affected the interest of the employees. Moreover, the Act does not apply to the establishments in public sector, excepting in certain cases, whereas it is felt that it should have been extended to all such establishments without exception. The amendments proposed in the Bill seek to achieve these objects.
